Italian Vogue has called Dalston 'the coolest place in Britain' and we'd like to welcome you to visit us soon! www.avohotel.com and follow us on facebook and twitter (@avohoteldalston)

Avo is conveniently on major bus routes and even has a new station opened recently (Dalston Junction). All Avo's rooms are ensuite and decorated elegantly with a black and white theme, featuring donated work from local photographers.

In our rooms we also have Sony iPod/iPhone docks, memory foam mattresses, plush dressing-gowns, 32" flat-screen TVs and a selection of over 100 complimentary DVDs and books to pick from. Our bathrooms have sparkly tiles and marbled panels with designer fittings and steam-free, touch-mirrors. The toiletries we provide are ELEMIS, the leading British spa and skincare brand, only available to 4 and 5 star properties.

In latest news, Avo Hotel is extremely pleased to host master chocolatier Anthony Ferguson, in our boutique lounge. His business, Niko B. Organic Chocolates is proud to be the only 100% organic handmade chocolatier in London.
